There are many shoes made which are not worth $3.50, but there is no shoe made that cannot, by the Regal method of bringing the shoes straight from the tannery to the consumer, be made and sold at a profit for only $3.50.

The profit would not be large but it would be there and it would be sufficient to satisfy a reasonable manufacturer. Give this shoe the weight if you have been thinking about buying $5 or $6 for your fall or winter shoes.

Why do you pay the excessive price for shoes that pass through five hands, in order to "protect" the shoe dealers who handle the shoes?

The Regal shoes are the best, most stylish, perfect fitting and satisfactory shoes that can be made. They are sold only through our own stores and at the uniform, never-changing, reasonable price of $3.50 per pair.

IMPORTANT RULING TO CATTLE DEALERS.

Federal Appellate Court Protects Mortgagor From Old Claims Against Mortgagee.

CASE IN INDIAN TERRITORY.

Court of Appeals of That District Overruled and Decision Given in Favor of Evans-Snyder-Buel Company.

A decision of the first importance to live stock commission firms and cattlemen generally was handed down yesterday by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in the case of Evans, Snyder, Buel & Co. vs. W. P. McFadden et al. A large per cent of the cattle business carried on in the Southwest is done by money loaned to cattlemen by commission firms in St. Louis, Kansas City and Chicago, which is secured by mortgages upon live stock purchased.

The decision sets forth clearly the rights of mortgagor in transactions of this kind, as compared with owners of old claims or judgments against the mortgagee.

The record in the case shows that on June 17, 1896, Evans, Snyder, Buel & Co. held two deeds of trust in the nature of mortgages on the head of cattle owned by John R. Blocker. At the time the cattle were pastured in the Indian Territory, near Muskogee, in the Creek Nation.

The deeds were given by Blocker to secure $100,000, which he had received from the plaintiff to purchase the cattle. The note advanced a cent of his own for the purpose. On June 17, 1896, William McFadden & Son, defendants in error, commenced an action against Blocker in the United States Court for the Indian Territory in the sum of $50,000 upon a judgment they had obtained against him in Jefferson County, Texas, May 28, 1895.

On June 29, 1896, they caused a writ of attachment upon the cattle to be issued. They were aware that the two deeds of trust existed, having caused the description of the cattle on which the attachment was issued from the records of the deeds on file in the Indian Territory. On July 14 Evans, Snyder, Buel & Co. gave bond in the sum of $100,000 as interpleaders in the cause and were allowed to obtain possession of the cattle.

The writ issued in attachment was returnable on December 3, 1896, and at the return term the plaintiff company filed its interpleader in due form, asserting that the cattle belonged to it and were not subject to attachment and sale as property of John R. Blocker. Two days later, December 5, 1896, judgment by default in the sum of $50,000 was entered against Blocker in the attachment suit having failed to make answer to complaint.

Subsequently the issue arising on the interpleader was tried and judgment was rendered in favor of the interpleader. These judgments were reversed, however, by the United States Court of Appeals for the Indian Territory and an appeal was taken on a writ of error.

In the arguments before the Court of Appeals the defendants showed that mortgages made by outsiders affecting property located in the Creek Nation were void under act of Congress. A number of decisions were cited to prove this ground. The Court of Appeals reversed the decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the Indian Territory and ordered a new trial. Judge Sanborn dissented in the opinion.

SAYS FATHER'S WILL IS LOST.

Mrs. Dauster Claims Part of J. G. Roswag's Estate.

Probate Judge G. A. Wurdeman of Clayton is investigating a charge made before him yesterday by Mrs. Magdalena Dauster, a daughter of the late John G. Roswag of Strafford, that the document which was filed last week as Roswag's last will was not valid, and that a subsequent will, dated May 1898, had been lawfully disposed of. The will filed last week was executed in 1884, and made John G. Roswag, Jr., heir to all the real estate in the county. Mrs. Dauster maintains that the document executed in 1884 made her a legatee to the real estate, and that the document which she would spare no effort to find it. Pending the investigation the court has ordered a suspension of the settlement of the estate.

Before his death Mr. Roswag attained local fame twice by capturing the measles epidemic in the oldest members of the St. Louis County Old Settlers Association. He was 90 years of age when he died. His estate is valued at $20,000.

FRENCH DECORATIONS SCANDAL.

Ministers Denounce the Stories and Get Vote of Confidence.

Paris, Nov. 19.—The Chamber of Deputies today discussed the alleged decorations scandal, the reactionary press having hinted for several days past at an unpleasant exposure regarding trafficking in decorations. It was a question of the Minister of the Colonies, had been paid 20,000 francs for his influence to secure a cross of the Legion of Honor for M. Edouard Drumont, proprietor of the Libre Parole.

M. Waldeck-Rousseau, the Premier, frantically replied, scolding the anti-Republican press for descending to such methods in its efforts to injure the Ministry. He claimed that there was nothing more than political fabrications.

The Government explanations were approved by a vote of 279 to 21.

Aerial Company Wants to Sell Gas and Power in County.

The Aerial Electric and Manufacturing Company of St. Louis made a second application to the St. Louis County Court at Clayton yesterday for a franchise to lay conduits at various places in the county for the distribution of gas and electricity to suburban residents and also for the building of a system of pneumatic tubes for the transmission of parcels, packages and mail. The company desires to put up a $100,000 bond and to furnish the county with power at a minimum rate of 6 per cent above the cost of production. It asks the franchise for fifty years, the first years of which it promises to pay the county as compensation 3 per cent of the net earnings, 25 per cent the next ten years, and 5 per cent the other thirty-five.

Charles Gibson, a St. Louis lawyer, is president of the company. A similar application was refused nearly a year ago.

CLARA NOLAN, FIVE YEARS OLD, PROSECUTES A NEGRO.

She Accuses Him of Robbing Her While on Errand for Her Aunt.

All records for the youthfulness of witness will be broken when little Clara Nolan, 5 years old, testifies against Gentry Lowe, a negro who is accused of robbing her on the street Saturday evening.

Clara lives with her aunt, Mrs. Mamie Orr, in the rear of No. 1128 North Eighth street. She is a precocious child and for more than a year has been on the market for her aunt. Her aunt, however, she has been able to go boldly about at all hours unmolested.

But Saturday evening she was robbed. Clara left her home, which is almost directly across the alley from the notorious House of Hell, to go to the grocery on the corner of Seventh and Bidwell streets for a bill. She was carrying a bill in her hand, wrapped in a piece of paper. Just after emerging from the alley into Bidwell street she was accosted by Gentry Lowe, a negro 25 years old. Lowe is well known to the police and lives at No. 1208 North Eighth street. The man asked where she was going, and finding that she had money, he grabbed it from her hand. Clara ran after him down Bidwell street until he turned into a passageway near Sixth street. Then she reported the theft to her aunt.

On her way to the Carr Street Police Station with the child, Mrs. Orr passed Arthur Slaughter sitting on his doorstep at No. 1128 Bidwell street. Clara ran up to Slaughter, asking him the name of the man who had been sitting there with him early that morning, saying that it was that man who had robbed her. From Slaughter was learned the man's name, and Officers Bunting and Delaney of the Fourth District soon arrested Lowe in a barbershop at Seventh and Bidwell streets.

At the station Lowe was identified by the little girl as intelligently as if she were a woman of mature judgment and experience. At the warrant office yesterday morning little Clara appeared with her aunt and gave her testimony coherently and with the most perfect composure.

The case does not rest entirely on the child's testimony. Fred Kemper, a negro who lives at No. 128 North Ninth street, was an eyewitness of the robbery and confirms the girl's story in every detail. A warrant was issued yesterday for Lowe's arrest, and he will be prosecuted.

The little girl probably will be sworn and permitted to testify along with older witnesses. The outcome of the case for witnesses has heretofore been 7 years.

TRIPLE ALLIANCE SAID TO BE SHAKY.

Its Reconstruction With England in the Place of Austria Is a Possibility.

THIS STORY LEAVES ITALY IN.

Another Says Russia Is Plotting to Secure Her Withdrawal and Is Willing to Offer Inducements.

Correspondence of the Associated Press.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 19.—One of the most cherished ideas of the Pan-Slavic publicists is to detach Greece from the triple alliance, and a writer in the Rossiya, one of the new papers of the St. Petersburg journals, proposes to accomplish this, and to overcome the influence of Austria in the Balkans at one stroke. He suggests that Russia shall put Italy in the way of securing a foothold, or, perhaps, even dominant, influence in Albania.

The editor of the Rossiya finds that this idea has its disadvantages. The plan, he thinks, however, might be acceptable if Russia had to deal with one Italy only—the quindral and political Italy. But there is another Italy to be reckoned with—the Vatican and Catholic Italy, the ancient enemies of the orthodox Greek Church. To substitute Italy for Austria in the direction of Balkan affairs would be, he thinks, like the change of King Lear's daughters—Regan for Goneril.

The Rossiya thinks it sees indications of a possible reconstruction of the triple alliance with England in the place of Austria. It notes evidence of coolness between the courts of Rome and Vienna, and attaches great significance to the forthcoming visit of the young King of Italy to England, among other countries. The result of it all may be the formation of a new triple alliance, German agreements regarding China and Africa into a formal alliance, into which Italy will be taken on account of her position in the Mediterranean. Austria will be isolated.

The natural result would be that Russia would have much easier sailing in the Balkans. This conclusion no doubt explains the Rossiya's article. It is the wish, not the facts so formally marshaled, that fathered this thought.

The Minister of Finance issues figures showing that, although they have not thrived particularly, the Belgian joint stock companies of Russia are making a small dividend, taken as 100,000,000 roubles, or nearly $25,000,000. Of this number sixty-four are less than eighteen months old.

The annual report on the grain crop of Russia, harvest of 1900, shows that of the winter grains the rye crop is a little above last year's crop, but the wheat average. This winter wheat suffered from excessive humidity in the southwest and "New Russia" spring grain is said to be near the average.

Twelve new sugar refineries will be opened in Russia this season. Warsaw newspapers report that the agents of the United States are buying sugar beet seed in Poland. This seed will be given a trial at the agricultural stations in the United States. Such reports have been obtained principally from France.

The Government explanations were approved by a vote of 279 to 21.

KICK MAY PROVE FATAL.

Paul Balladere, St. Louis County Farmer, Seriously Hurt.

Paul Balladere, a well-known St. Louis County farmer, living about one mile west of Clayton, was kicked in the abdomen yesterday afternoon by a horse, and received internal injuries which, in the opinion of Doctor G. E. Eggers, the attending physician, may prove fatal.

The horse is a family animal, and had been driven by Balladere for many years. The last fifteen years. Heretofore it had always been extremely gentle. In addition to the internal injuries that he received, he fractured his left elbow in falling.

Mr. Balladere is 68 years old, and has lived in St. Louis County nearly all his life.

Test for Yourself the Wonderful Curative Properties of Swamp-Root.

To Prove What the Great Kidney and Bladder Remedy, Swamp-Root, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of The Republic May Have a Sample Bottle Free.

Reporters Have Convincing Interviews With Prominent People Regarding Wonderful Cures by Swamp-Root.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Greater New York, Oct. 11, 1900.

Gentlemen—In justice to you, I feel it is my duty to send you an acknowledgment of the receipt of the sample bottle of Swamp-Root, which you so kindly sent me. I had been out of health for the past five years with kidney and bladder trouble. Had our best physicians prescribe for me. They would relieve me for the time being, but the old complaint would in a short time return again. I sent for a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, and I found it did me a world of good. Since then I have taken eight small bottles, bought at my drug store, and I consider myself perfectly cured. It seemed as though my back would break in two after stooping. I do not have to get up during the night to urinate, as I formerly did three or four times a night, but now sleep the sleep of peace. My back is all right again, and in every way I am a new man. Two of my brother officers are still using Swamp-Root. They, like myself, cannot say too much in praise of it. It is a boon to mankind. We recommend it to all humanity who are suffering from kidney and bladder diseases.

My brother officers (whose signatures accompany this letter), as well as myself, thank you for the blessing you have brought to the human race in the compounding of Swamp-Root. We remain, yours very truly,

JAMES COOK, HUGH E. BOYLE, JOHN J. BODKIN.

Officers of the 6th Police Precinct, Greater New York.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

"You have no idea how well I feel. I am satisfied that I do not need any more medicine, as I am in as good health as I ever was in my life." So says Mrs. Mary Engelhardt of 2835 Madison street, St. Louis, Mo., a reporter of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"For more than ten years I had suffered with what the doctors termed female trouble; also heart trouble, with swelling of the feet and limbs. Last summer I felt so badly that I thought I had not long to live. I consulted doctor after doctor, and took their medicines, but felt no better. The physicians told me my kidneys were not affected, but I felt sure that they were the cause of my trouble. A friend recommended me to try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and I must say I derived immense benefits almost from the first week. I continued the medicine, taking it regularly, and I am now in splendid health. The pains and aches have all gone. I have recommended Swamp-Root to all my friends, and told them what it has done for me. I will gladly answer any one who desires to write me regarding my case. I have a sample bottle sent absolutely free by mail. Also a book telling all about kidney and bladder troubles and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured by Swamp-Root. Be sure and mention reading this generous offer in The St. Louis Daily Republic when sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y."

How to Find Out if You Need Swamp-Root.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

So when your kidneys are weak or out of order you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel awful," begin taking the famous new discovery, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince any one.

Weak and ailing kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, and if permitted to continue fatal results are sure to follow. Kidney trouble irritates the nerves, makes you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable. Makes you pass water often during the day, and obliges you to get up many times during the night.

Causes puffiness or dark circles under the eyes, rheumatism, gravel, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints and muscles; makes your head ache and back ache; causes indigestion, stomach and liver troubles; you get a yellow, yellow complexion; makes you feel as though you had heart trouble; you may have plenty of ambition, but no strength; get weak and waste away.

The cure for these troubles is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the world-famous kidney remedy. In taking Swamp-Root you afford natural help to Nature, for Swamp-Root is the most perfect healer and gentle aid to the kidneys that is known to medical science.

If there is any doubt in your mind as to your condition, take from your drug store or from our office, place it in a glass or bottle and let it stand twenty-four hours. If on examination it is milky or cloudy, if there is a brick-dust settling, or if small particles float about in it, your kidneys are in need of immediate attention.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is used in the leading hospitals, recommended by physicians in their private practice, and is taken by doctors themselves who have kidney ailments, because they recognize in it the greatest and most successful remedy for kidney and bladder troubles.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere.

If you have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent absolutely free by mail. Also a book telling all about kidney and bladder troubles and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured by Swamp-Root. Be sure and mention reading this generous offer in The St. Louis Daily Republic when sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
